Participants Opine

I had an impression that this would be just one of the camps out of the hordes being conducted these days focussing mainly on personality development; nonetheless based on the positive feedback I received, I joined this camp at EDII. I was surprised by the information that was driven in. The outcome-based learning that I received here has had a lasting impact on my personality. The simulation exercises helped me discover my innate abilities. This is the best thing to have happened to me.

Rishabh Gupta

The lessons I learned from EDII's Summer Camp cannot be expressed in words. My academic performance has improved and there has been a significant change in my interpersonal skills as well. It has helped in instilling skills which I am confident would shape my future. The career counselling at this camp is by far the best because one gets to know how to link one's abilities and strengths with diverse career options. Thank you EDII.
