THE WORLD IS WAITING FOR THEM....

Children can be the harbingers of change and awakening, if nurtured suitably. These young saplings can grow into innovative, persistent and creative individuals with proper grooming.

Enterprising values, which come in with this result-oriented grooming, play a significant role in shaping the personality of these children. Such holistically groomed children will always leave impressions, with their unique eye for opportunities and the ability to turn them into maximum advantage on account of their strikingly winning attributes.

Through National Summer Camps on Entrepreneurial Stimulation, Entrepreneurship Development Institute of India seeks to inculcate high enterprising values in the children in the age group of 12 to 16 years.
