EDII is working on the grassroots level in association with several universities to promote innovation and connect students with entrepreneurship. On this line, a 5-days free training program is being organized by EDII for 24 professors of five universities from Uttar Pradesh, Madhya Pradesh & Chhattisgarh. The training has started on 7th March and will last on 11th March 2022. This training is being organised free of cost for the universities affiliated with EDII.

Dr Sunil Shukla, Director General, Entrepreneurship Development Institute of India, Ahmedabad, inaugurated the training program. He stressed on the importance of entrepreneurship training in his speech and said that we have to adopt the spirit of entrepreneurship with our student life so that we could be self-reliant. He appreciated the Vice Chancellors of the universities saying that the leadership of the university at present is aware and moving, which is a good sign.

Dr. Amit Kumar Dwivedi, in-charge of the Department of Policy Advocacy and Research at EDII, Ahmedabad, said that this program is being done to make professors aware. In this 5-day training program, 24 participants from 4 universities of Uttar Pradesh and 1 university of Madhya Pradesh are getting training. 5 professors from Dr. APJ Abdul Kalam Technical University, Lucknow, 6 from Chhatrapati Shahu Ji Maharaj University, Kanpur, 4 from Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel University of Agriculture and Technology, Meerut, 4 from Madan Mohan Malaviya Technological University, Gorakhpur, 5 from Guru Ghasidas University, Bilaspur, Chhattisgarh. The participants are getting entrepreneurship training at EDII who will further give mentorship in their university.

The purpose of this 5-day program is to harness the possibilities of entrepreneurship, various financial assistance schemes being run by the Central and State Governments, new courses to be created for the students, to select the students' ideas for startup, system of incubation and pre-incubation.

Headquartered in Ahmedabad, EDII has established regional and project offices in many states from where various projects of state's entrepreneurship are handled. EDII, Ahmedabad is recognized as a Centre of Excellence by the Ministry of Skill Development and Entrepreneurship, Government of India. The Institute is a National Resource Organization in the field of education, research, training, promotion of entrepreneurship at national and international level.
