Goa CM inaugurates EDII regional centre

Goa CM Pramod Sawant on Tuesday inaugurated the Goa Regional Centre of the Entrepreneurship Development Institute of India (EDII) in the presence of govt officials and entrepreneurs. EDII will implement 'Goa Udyamita Yojana' through the initiative, said officials, adding that the centre was a result of Goa's request to Gujarat for the same.

Students at RC Technical decry overpriced snacks: Students of RC Technical College have alleged that the canteen operator was charging them more than the maximum retail price printed on food packets and cold drinks. The students staged a protest and met the principal on Wednesday. Sources said the principal checked the menu prices, found the allegations to be true and promised to act against the operator.
