

EDII celebrates 43rd Foundation Day

India on its way to becoming a foremost startup nation, says Goa CM Sawant

Ahmedabad Mirror Bureau
feedback@ahmedabadmirror.com

Posts @ahmedabadmirror

The 43rd foundation day of Entrepreneurship Development Institute of India (EDII) saw dignitaries from the government, industry, academia, and corporate sector discuss the evolving role of entrepreneurship and startups in shaping the socio-economic landscape of the nation. Addressing the gathering virtually, Dr Pramod Sawant, CM of Goa, said India is on its way to becoming a foremost startup nation. "Goa looks forward to erecting a strong startup-orientated ecosystem that aligns with the vision of 'Viksit Bharat'."

The CM also acknowledged EDII's efforts in establishing the EDII - Goa

Dr Piruz Khambatta unveiling EDII's 43th Foundation Day

Centre, which he had proposed through a communication to Gujarat CM Bhupendra Patel. Dr Piruz Khambatta, Chairman of Rasna Group said entrepreneurship has come far and is now hailed as a powerful tool for socio-economic growth. "The vision of Viksit Bharat is based on the pillars of entrepreneurship, skill development, technology, innovation, and markets."