

Join the new age
Entrepreneurship
Development programmes
at EDI

Ahmedabad: The pioneer in the entrepreneurship development studies, the Entrepreneurship Development Institute of India, invites applications for its Post Graduate Diploma in Management in Development Studies (DS) for the development sector aspirants or who want to start one's own social enterprise and Business Entrepreneurship (BE) for the ones who want to set up businesses and develop or join the family business; for 2016-18 batches. The programmes besides being AICTE approved are the only recognized programmes for structural education in entrepreneurship offered by this institute in India. Considered a 'Centre of Excellence', EDI is determined to edify the attributes of Entrepreneurship and become an Academic Institution for entrepreneurship education, training and research. EDI has already charted the course of supporting potential ventures with a 'start-up incubator' and has shining examples to pitch in as the new age business enterprise visionary, befitting the Young India.
