

Two IIM-A incubated start-ups win top honours

OUR BUREAU

Ahmedabad, February 9

Two agriculture technology investee start-ups of the Centre for Innovation, Incubation and Entrepreneurship (CIIE), the incubator and start-up ecosystem builder of IIM-Ahmedabad, have won top honours at TIME India Awards 2017.

At the World Economic Forum, Davos, Barrix Agro Sciences and Greenway Grameen won top honours as Start-up Innovator and Sustainability Pioneer, respectively.

Organisers had received nearly 15,000 entries across six categories. The jury comprised GE Vice-Chairman John Rice, Infosys co-founder NR Narayana Murthy, ICICI

Bank Managing Director and CEO Chanda Kochhar; Time Inc Executive Editor-International Clay Chandler, McKinsey Asia Chairman Kevin Sneader and Time Inc Vice-Chairman Norman Pearlstine.