EDII

IN BRIEF

Faculty devpt programme begins at EDII

The Entrepreneurship Development Institute of India inaugurated the first batch of faculty development programme on Entrepreneurship Course Curriculum Design, Development and Teaching, on Monday. The programme has been designed for faculty from various colleges that are involved in implementing the Student Start-up and Innovation Policy of the state government. An official release said that 42 participants from technical and higher education background are attending the programme.