An illustration on the left shows a woman with dark curly hair, wearing a red patterned sweater and black pants, sitting cross-legged on the floor and working on a laptop. A red rocket with a white nose cone is launching from the laptop, leaving a trail of white smoke. On the right, a man with a beard, wearing a red t-shirt and purple pants, is walking and holding a large yellow lightbulb. The lightbulb has a blue filament and is glowing. The background of the illustration is a light blue sky with white clouds.
