On the eve of Teachers' Day, Prime Minister Narendra Modi on Monday met the teachers, who will be conferred national awards for their invaluable contributions to the education sector.

India's second President Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan's birth anniversary is celebrated as Teachers' Day on September 5 every year.

After meeting the award-winning teachers, Modi said, "Met our nation's exemplary educators who have been honoured with the National Teachers'

Awards. Their dedication to shaping young minds and their unwavering commitment to excellence in education is very inspiring. In their classrooms, they are scripting a brighter future for India's youth." IAN S
