AHMEDABAD

announces

SECOND SUMMER CAMP ON
ENTREPRENEURIAL STIMULATION FOR CHILDREN
(May 15-20, 1995)

The major objective of the camp is to inculcate a spirit of enterprise among children at a tender age and to enable them to carry forward the economic development of the nation.

The camp participants would be exposed to various types of entrepreneurship stimulation activities including games and exercises, puzzle-solving, quizzes, competitions, industrial visits and formal and informal meetings with successful entrepreneurs and achievers.

Guidelines for participation in the camp are :

- ▲ Admission is open to 12 to 17 year old children.
- ▲ The number of participants would be limited to 35 only, on first-come-first-served-basis.
- ▲ The camp will be organised at the award-winning EDI campus at Ahmedabad. The children would be accommodated in the Institute's residential halls on a twin-sharing (Non-AC) basis.
- ▲ A highly subsidised fee of Rs. 1,500/- per participant will be charged which will include the lodging and boarding expenses also.
