

Kids' summer camp held at EDII

To inculcate the entrepreneurial spirit in children in the age group of 12 to 16 years, the EDII (Entrepreneurship Development Institute of India) organized a summer camp. In all, 93 participants from six states of the country participated in the camp, which was held from May 1 to May 6. As many as 63 boys and 30 girls from 22 cities learned the art of team-building and goal-setting at the camp. Kishor Kharat, president, EDII, and MD & CEO of IDBI Bank, was the chief guest on the last day of the camp and awarded certificates to participants. Addressing kids and their parents he said, "Business is a risky proposition compared to service." He congratulated parents who looked beyond fields like medicine and engineering and motivated their children to consider entrepreneurship.
