

The Times of India
Title : CITY DIGEST
Author :
Location :
Article Date : 06/20/2015

Shahpur resident seek water

Residents of Modhvada ni Pol in Shahpur went to the ward office on Friday morning and demanded release of drinking water, but when the officials failed to meet their demand, they set the office furniture on fire. Jignesh Pandya, chairman of water committee, said, "The problem is restricted to only 10 households. We will soon find a solution."

Kalam to inaugurate incubator centre

Former President of India A P J Abdul Kalam will on Saturday inaugurate the Techno Social Business Incubator at Entrepreneurship Development Institute of India (EDI). Called Aashray, the centre will promote innovations, social enterprises, innovative ventures and grassroots technologies.

Mountaineering course in Cept

As part of the summer school, Cept University conducted a course in basic mountaineering, in collaboration with Himalayan Mountaineering Institute, Darjeeling. As many as 59 students participated in the course.